

Shiv Krishnan
Chairman & CEO
INDUS Corporation

Shiv Krishnan founded INDUS Corporation in 1993, following 12 years of public sector and Fortune 500 IT consulting experience. INC 500, Deloitte, Virginia Chamber of Commerce, and Washington Technology have repeatedly named INDUS to be among the Region's and America's fastest growing companies. Shiv's leadership, reputation for integrity and ethics, and unwavering commitment to quality service has brought INDUS to be a well-respected mid-tier

Federal IT firm. His personal commitment to complete customer satisfaction and total employee focus is well known by his employees and valued by his customers.

Shiv's commitment to education and community is exemplary. He is a founding board member and immediate-past Chairman of the Small and Emerging Contractors Advisory Forum (SECAF). Shiv currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Professional Services Council (PSC), Board of Advisors for the University of Virginia's School of Continuing and Professional Studies, the Board of Directors of the Wolf Trap Foundation, and the Board of Governors of the Tower Club. Shiv is also a former member of the Board of Trustees of George Mason University Foundation and George Mason University's School of Management, and a past-President of the Association for Corporate Growth.

Shiv has been recognized as a Washington business leader with numerous awards and citations. He was recognized as "one of the 20 people we admire in Washington Business" by SmartCEO Magazine for his mentoring activities and has been selected as a "Smart 100 CEO" since 2009. He was the 2002 SBA Small Business Person of the Year, VRSDC Entrepreneur of the Year, a three-time finalist for Ernst & Young's Entrepreneur of the Year, and among the "Fifty Most Influential Minorities in Business" according to MBPN.

Shiv has held management and engineering positions at AMS and Versar, Inc. He graduated from Clarkson University in Potsdam, NY, with a Master's degree in Chemical Engineering, and has completed executive business management programs at the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth.
