

Lieutenant General (Ret) KENNETH W. HUNZEKER is the Chief Executive Officer and President of Vectrus, Inc. He was appointed CEO in September 2014 when Vectrus was established as a publicly-traded spin-off from parent Exelis Inc. He has led the organization since April 2011.

Vectrus is a leading, global government services company with a history in the services market that dates back more than 50 years. The company provides infrastructure asset management, information technology and network communication services, and logistics and supply chain management services to U.S. government customers around the world.

Mr. Hunzeker is responsible for all management and global operations of Vectrus. This includes more than 100 operating locations in the U.S., and 18 foreign countries, four continents, and 5,600 employees.

He initially joined ITT in August 2010 after 35 years of distinguished service in the U.S. Army. His Army career was highlighted by troop assignments in Infantry and Armored divisions and high-level military and joint staff positions. He has more than 20 years of defense community experience in program management, strategy development and finance, working with key decision makers within the Army, Department of Defense, Office of Management and Budget, and Congress.

His most recent Army assignment was Deputy Commander, United States Forces–Iraq. During a previous tour, he commanded the Civilian Police Transition Team responsible for training and equipping over 400,000 Iraqi security forces. He also served as the Vice Director for Force Structure, Resources and Assessment, J-8, The Joint Staff, Washington, DC, and he commanded the 1st Infantry Division as well as 5th U.S. Corps, both in U.S. Army Europe.

Mr. Hunzeker holds a Bachelor's Degree from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and two Masters' Degrees, including one in Systems Technology (Command, Control and Communications) from the Naval Post Graduate School, and one in Strategic Security Studies from the National Defense University.

