

Charmaine Edwards, Leidos Corporation

Charmaine is a seasoned veteran supporting the Vision process for 20+ years. She has supported various teams including DoD, Civilian agencies and most recently the DHS team where she has been co-lead for several years. Charmaine has a rich background of IT and security experience in technical, management and business development roles. She had held various positions within Lockheed Martin, BAE Systems, IBM and Leidos. She holds a B.S. in Computer Science, M.S. in Computer Systems Management and an M.S. in Cybersecurity from University of Maryland. Charmaine is a native from Washington DC and currently resides in Damascus, Maryland.