

Kerry Barnhart
President, Front Edge Consulting

Ms. Barnhart's 30-year career spans the disciplines of strategy, organizational design, and transformational change. She has helped fortune 50 companies and federal agencies define their business and organizational models and align behaviors to drive strategic growth. As the Head of Strategic Transformation for Aetna, Inc., she helped to evolve Aetna's business model, integrate several significant acquisitions, structure joint venture operating models and align incentives and behaviors to achieve Aetna's position as a progressive leader in the rapidly changing Health Benefits industry. As Co-Founder of Federal Management Partners, Inc., she focused on human capital consulting, competency modeling and process change in the Federal sector. Currently she serves as President, Front Edge Consulting, where she continues to provide organizational consulting to select clients while also serving as President, Vibe Properties, LLC where she is focused on driving a Main Street revitalization and property development effort in a small Virginia town.