

Roman Gerard Napoli

Deputy Coordinator, Transformation Task Team
Deputy Program Management Improvement Officer

Roman Napoli currently serves as the Deputy Coordinator in USAID's Transformation Task Team and the T3 lead for Effective Partnering and Procurement Reform. As part of this position, he is the lead on USAID's reforms which attempt to make USAID more efficient and effective by respecting the taxpayer's investment in USAID. Roman concurrently serves as USAID's Deputy Program Management Improvement Officer and lead for performance. He previously served in a number of senior USAID position including being the Chief of Staff and acting Director for USAID's corporate budget office, the Office of Budget and Resource Management (BRM).