

Eric M. Ueland serves as the Director of the Office of U.S. Foreign Assistance Resources, an Assistant Secretary equivalent. He was appointed to this position on October 1, 2018. As Director, Mr. Ueland manages the Department of State and USAID foreign assistance budget. Most recently, Mr. Ueland served as a Senior Strategy Officer at the Millennium Challenge Corporation.

Mr. Ueland also served as Republican Staff Director and Senior Advisor on the U.S. Senate Budget Committee for over four years. Prior to joining the Budget Committee, he was Vice President of the Duberstein Group in Washington, DC.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Ueland was a staffer in the U.S. Senate for 18 years, where he served as Chief of Staff to two members of the Senate leadership, among several other roles. He is a native of Portland, Oregon, and earned a B.A. in History from the University of San Francisco.